HUB

GLOBAL. INCLUSIVE. SMART

GLOBAL EMPLOYEES ON MANY SYSTEMS?

WE BRING 1 GLOBAL SYSTEM

AT NEEYAMO

EXISTS THE IDEAL GLOBAL HRIS!
HERE'S WHAT IT CAN DO,

Multi-linguistic → Drives truly great user experiences

Global coverage → Single system advantage

Powerful team analytics → Actionable insights on global workforce

Integration ready → Seamless technology experience

Globally configured → Compliant & ready-to-deploy

Flexible configurations → Tailored solution

Advanced reporting → Efficiency drivers

Challenges seen in today's HRIS

Unilingual UI → Globally redundant

Several platforms → Maintenance heavy

Disparate global systems → Inadequate team insight

System inconsistencies → Decentralized, incomplete data

Complex integration → Dissonant technology experience

Limited global configurations → Ineffective management

Expensive solutions → Cheaper, ineffective platforms for smaller countries

HUB WORKING ITS MAGIC

This is Kara, the global HR for an organization which has embarked on expanding its global borders. She needs to manage newly onboarded employees and expatriates while giving the management workforce insights across geographies.

The current Neeyamo Hub has given her a seamless experience. The system was readily scalable and rapidly implemented for other countries. With the same UI experience at global scale, she seamlessly manages global workforce and derives powerful insights on efficiency driving further strategic decisions.

Say hello to Bryan. He is an architect who is deployed across the world for designing construction projects. Being assigned across different entities in his organization, Bryan must update and manage his and his teams' information globally.

This globe trotter does it with ease using Neeyamo Hub. His global teams are consolidated under one view giving him great degree of control over tasks and approvals. With multi-lingual support, he can converse easily with people across the globe. Best part yet, he gets the job done on-the-go with mobile support and quick one click approvals.
