Challenges seen in today's

TIME SYSTEMS

Incorrect time → Incorrect payroll

Multi-locations → Heavy maintenance

Ineffective reporting → No actionable insight

Incorrect entries → multiple corrections

Complex approvals, scheduling → Time lost

Rigid workflow → Delayed approvals, payroll

No calendar view → terrible time off planning

Multi-system quagmire → Repulsive to growth

Time theft, Buddy punching → High operating cost

TIME WORKING ITS MAGIC

This is Stuart. He efficiently manages a busy team of 10 with multiple projects at hand efficiently. With Neeyamo Time system he knows his team's work time and can precisely map requirements to the right resource.

Stuart has identified 40 excessive hours of available team work per week that he invests into enhancing productivity. The system notifies him prior to paytime and he ensures accurate time data with easy regularization approvals and delegations. The best part is, with a system that is accessible wherever he goes, he can do this at the comfort of his available time.
