

The Neeyamo Vialto Partners Alliance

Unleashing Mobility + Payroll Excellence for a Global Workforce

Neeyamo is a leading technology-led global payroll provider, delivering seamless payroll services across 160+ countries. Coupled with our proprietary payroll platform, Neeyamo Payroll™, and our experience providing global payroll services to Fortune 500 majors, we empower multinational organizations to pay their global workforce. Over the years, we have supported customers with their global mobility requirements on a need-basis. However, we are now witnessing a dynamic shift among organizations that embrace global employee movement as a business strategy that will fuel growth.

Our alliance with Vialto Partners helps us to provide an end-to-end solution encompassing payroll, tax, and mobility on an integrated platform. This unified offering creates a frictionless experience for multinational clients and mobile employees. The alliance and the resultant fusion of capabilities empower businesses to conquer intricate cross-border challenges seamlessly.

Our unified platform ensures a streamlined, compliance-first approach to managing international talent, amplifying efficiency, and elevating employee experience. This alliance equips us to proactively attack the market and redefine industry standards by harmonizing Vialto Partners's expertise in global mobility with Neeyamo's proven excellence in building tech-enabled solutions, helping organizations realize their vision for managing a global workforce.
